Building Bought Over Their Heads by Savings Bank & Trust Co.

The fact that the Savings Bank & Trust Company recently purchased the building which we have occupied for years is an all familiar fact to the readers of this advertisement. It is also generally known that the Savings Bank & Trust Company will begin to remodel the building at an early date. We are therefore forced to reorganize our business, diminish our stocks and perhaps discontinue some lines altogether. We have only a short time to act and rather than wait until most people have made their fall and winter purchases we have decided to work quickly and start our stock reduction by inaugurating at once the most sensational sale we have ever attempted. While other merchants are enabled to hold their stocks for the higher prices that are coming, we feel compelled to offer our big stocks at astonishing reductions. The many price slaughtered specials we offer beginning Tuesday, December 9th, are attractively displayed in this announcement.
